Jockey Hall received a letter from a woman demanding the repayment of 1,000 francs, which she declared he made her lose. She threatened that if Hall refused to return the money she would inform the owner of the horse which he rode. Hall handed the letter to the police, who confronted the woman with the jockey. The woman then admitted that Hall was not the same person who had caused her to lose her money.

RACING CHANGES IN ENGLAND. Hereafter Winning Jockeys May Not Be

Lifted From Saddle by Admirers. The latest British exchanges to hand contain an account of an important meeting of the English Jockey Club at Newmarket on Oct. I and at which several changes were made in the racing rules. At the meeting were Lord Falmouth, Sir Daniel Cooper, Sir R. Waldo Griffith, Lord Harewood, Col. Baird, Lord Stanley, Prince Soltykoff, Col. H. McCalmont, J. Lowther, Mr. Larnach and Mr. Brassey. Lord Falmouth brought forward the proposed alteration of the rules moved by the stewards. Chief of these was Rule 151, governing the actions of a win-was Rule 151, governing the actions of a winning jockey. Heretofore the jockey could be lifted from his seat by his admirers or otherwise congratulated, but the new rule precludes any such liberties and reads as follows:

Immediately after pulling up the winning jockey of each race must ride his horse to the place appointed for unsaddling the winner. The other jockeys may dismount within a reasonable distance, Every jockey must present himself to be weighed by the clerk of the scales at once. If a jockey he prevented from riding back to weigh in by reason of accident or illness, by which he or his horse is disabled, he may walk or be carried to the scales.

A change was also introduced in the "dead" A change was also introduced in the "dead heat" rule by which it was proposed that any jockey could ride in the run-off provided he qualified and carried the correct weight. This was held over to be redrafted and will be brought up again at a meeting and will be brought up again at a meeting next week.

The racing critic of the Field, it seems, is not impressed with James R. Keenes's Conroy II., as the following paragraph on the American horse's appearance in the Jockey Club Stakes at Newmarket shows:

"The American horse Conroy II., who has been a good deal talked about, was one of the field, but he was at the Bushes when the winner passed the post, and though he is a showy horse at first glance, he has small, weak quarters, and does not pick to pieces well."

TURF GOSSIP AT THE TRACK. Col. Pepper Will Sell Ten Brood Mares -Numerous Good Things.

Col. James E. Pepper, the well-known Kentucky horseowner and breeder, announced yesterday that he will sell ten brood mares, including Stylitive, the dame of King's Courier a week from to-day at Morris Park. Col. Pepper has not had his usual success this year and has been selling some of his best horses of late, but he will continue racing in partnership with J. Grant Lyman, who recently purchased a half interest in the Pepper Stable for $80,000.

As the season draws to a close the "good things" increase in numbers and variety, Scarcely a day passes that the crowd visiting the track is not surfeited with tips, some of which are good and others worthless. In the selling hurdle race yesterday a select combination hurdle race yesterday a select combination played the winner. Yelp, at 8 to 1, including the gelding's owner, George F. Johnson. Senator cCarren had a liberal commission on his coit Mackey Dwyer, who won the second race. The Westerners went down hard on Incubator, while the handicappers, who saw Shorthose left at the post the other day, backed him from 10 to 1 to sixes, all three ways. Tammany backed Ailan, who formerly belonged to John A. Drake. Another good thing that went wrong was Astarita, who, in spite of Lyne's efforts, finished outside the money.

De Reszke, Carbuncle and Vincennes were the hot ones in the third race. Vincennes, owned by John A. Drake, had the apprentice. Hyland, up, yet he was played down from tens to eights. The fourth event bristied with sure winners. The Keenes' Fading Light was quietly passed around and wise men, rocceded to back her down from 12 to 1 to fives. The Sanfords' Cranesville was said to be ready and the odds fell from tens to eights. J. B. Haggin's Rosewater was another bait for the public's ready money, while Meddling Mary and Pearl Diver were played in the show books.

The tips in the fifth, barring Ray, were Preseria, Knight, Templar, Whisp and White books.

The tips in the fifth, barring Ray, were Pretoria, Knight Templar, Whisp and White Crest, all well backed for the place. Warranted and Circus were also handed out to beat Runnels in the last race.

At Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—There is still a chance for a match between McChesney, the pride of the West, and if-rmls, the champion thre--year-old of the East. Owner Durnell of the Brun of Durnell & Herz, who own McChesney, said to day that he would ship McChesney to Morris Park and race him against Hermis if the Morris Park and race him against Hermis if the Morris Park and race him against Hermis if the Morris Park and race him against Hermis if the Morris Park and race him against Hermis if the Morris Park and race him against Hermis and satisfy the lovers of the sport as to which was the better of the two. He also said he would make Owner Beil a side bet of a good sum. E. J. Arnold & Co., the St. Louis racing firm, put through another coup to-day in their three year-old flity Ethylene, which they backed from 8 to 1 down to fours. The filly broke secoug, took a lead of two lengths at the quarter, increased it to five turning into the stretch and won as she pleased by nearly four lengths from Shdney C. Heat of Free-for-All. Racing at Parkway yesterday, while interesting, was at the same time extremely disa-greeable. It was cold and overcoats were not too heavy. The track was fast and large fields started in each race, the free-forill being the only event decided in straight heats. Coney, 2:02, was unsteady, and was distanced in the second heat. The 2:17 trot had to go over to noon to-day with the 2:17 pace, both having been flercely fought in the seven heats decided. Tedious scoring and repeated fouling resulted because of the anxiety on the part of all drivers of rear-guard horses to secure a piece of the purse money. The 2:25 trot, from Thurs-day's card, went to the Hartford hoppled mare, Susie Fox. NOW FOR A CUP DEFENDER.

CORNELIUS VANDERBILT MAY BE ONE OF THE NEW SYNDICATE.

Talk of C. Oliver Iselin Having Charge of the Boat-Our Yachtsmen Alive to the Situation-The Sailing Master Question Herreshoff Making Preparations

Yacht Club for a race next year for the Ameri ca's Cup has been accepted, yachtsmen are talking of the defence of the Cup and are won dering who will have charge of the three yachts that will battle next summer for the honor of defending the Cup against the Shan rock III. The fact that the Shamrock III. already being built and will be in the water probably before the end of this year shows them that Sir Thomas Lipton is going to make a more determined effort to "lift" the Cap next season than he did on his two previous visits, and consequently yachtsmen are rather anxious that all the plane that are being made here should be put into execution as soon as possible.

The committee selected at the special meeting of the New York Yacht Club on Thursday evening is a representative one, and all its members are thoroughly alive to the work that has to be done in order that the work that has to be done in order that the America's Cup may still be in the custody of the club after the next series of races has the members of the committee met and held a long session Several prominent members of the club who were in the clubhouse at the time were asked to confer with the committee to talk things over, but all are very secretive as to what took place.

The syndicate that is to defray the expense of building the new 90-footer, it is said, has been practically formed, but who its members are will not be made public until all its plans are made. It is said that Cornelius Vanderbilt, who has raced the 70-footer Rainbow for three seasons, is one of the members of the new syndicate and will take an active part in the management of the new yacht. Geers's Pacing Marvel Captures the Wilson Stake at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 17 — Over a fast track and before a crowd which numbered close to six thousand, Ed Geers's pacing marvel, Direct Hal, won the Wilson Stake, to-day. He made a fair field look exceedingly cheap and never was forced to pace faster than 2:07. That the track was exceedingly fast is indicated by the fact that of the twelve heats trotted and paced, nine were better than 2:10 and only one was worse than 2:10 3. The finish in every heat was drawn fine enough to provoke enthusiastic shouts. After twice beating Beldia by a scant quarter of a length, the favorite, Dr. Strong, had to succumb in the third heat.

change his mind, and will devote his efforts to making the Columbia a prominent candidate for Cup defence honors for the third time.

The Constitution syndicate has not yet had a meeting and nothing has been decided about that boat beyond the fact that she will be in commission. This yacht is owned by August Belmont, Frederick G. Bourne, James Stillman, Henry Waiters and Col Oliver H. Payne. She is now hauled out at New London and there is plenty of time to talk over any changes that may be made and to get new apars and sails for the boat as soon as it has been decided who is to have charge of her and who is to be her sailing master.

The sailing master duestion is a hard one for all hands Carl Barr has been secured for all hands Carl Barr has been secured for the second cup. Mrs. For won her and the sailing master. Capt. Lem. Miller, was mederated the Columbia when Capt. Barr sailed that yacht, will next year be in charge of the Columbia and should be able to get the best speed out of her. Last summer he had charge of the Navahoe and sailed the second out of her. Last summer he had charge of the Navahoe and sailed the successfully in foreign waters.

Now that the challenge has been formally accepted and it is known what size boat Sir Thomas Lipton is going to try again with, it is expected that Herreshoff will get to work at once on the new boat. The contract has been secondary of the Capt. Lem. Grant Surpers of t may be signed any day, but Herreshoff has already been told what is expected of him and is making preparations accordingly. The new yacht will be built in the south shop at Bristol, where the Defender, Columbia and Constitution were built. This is the only shop where the ways are deep enough for launching. At present there is a steamer in the south shop, but that vessel will be launched in a few days. In the meantime the material for the construction of the new boat will be assembled at Bristol and when work is fairly started it will be rushed along as fast as possible, so that all three defenders will be ready early in the season for the tuning-up trials.

The Shamrock II, is at the Erie Basin, housed over, as she was after the races last year. No word has been received yet about Sir Thomas Lipton's plans for this boat, but before she is in fit condition to be used as a trial boat for the new challenger many defective rivets will have to be replaced. The along job. The sails, rigging and blocks were all destroyed by fire last winter and will have to be replaced. The sails are now being made by Ratsey and some time ago an order was placed with a Providence firm for new blocks. These blocks have been made and have been shipped to Erie Basin.

Brooklawn Players Lead in Tournament -Match for Will Smith. Rainy weather did not mar the enjoymen of players and onlookers at the invitation tournament of the Brooklawn Country Club of Bridgeport yesterday; in fact, the players said the wet did the greens good, as they had been too fast and glossy. The "gallery was weatherproof and enthusiastic. An added feature was an eighteen-hole match between Will Smith of Midlothian, open cham-pion of 1899, and John Harland, the club's professional. Smith, who had Kilgour as caddie, made but one misplay going out, when he pulled his drive into trouble on the fourth hole, 223 yards, and needed five strokes.

The semi-final for the Brooklawn cup brought the downfall of White, who put out the Connecticut champion, C. H. Seeley, on Thursday, for Taylor played a strong game and beat him by 4 up and 3 to play.
